

Diverse and climate-smart forest industry

Moderated by reporter Jaakko Loikkanen

9.00 Coffee and registration

9.15 Live-stream opens

9.30 PI's autumn meeting, official part Chairperson, Katja Metsäranta

- Review of association's activities
- Membership issues
- Scholarships and awards

10.20 Coffee break

11.00 A comprehensive view of the economy – Where are we heading, and how do diversity and climate change affect our national economy?

Pasi Kuoppamäki, Chief Economist, Danske Bank

11.35 Opportunities of green transition and biodiversity in the forest industry

Eeva Punta, Bioeconomy Lead, Sweco Finland Oy

12.10 The Finnish government's climate policy and the role of the forest industry

Kai Mykkänen, Minister of Climate and the Environment, Valtioneuvosto

12.40 LUNCH

14.00 The forest industry's diversity roadmap – a sustainable path towards the green transition

Paula Lehtomäki, CEO, Finnish Forest Industries Federation

14.30 The impact of the green transition on skills needs – diversity as an agent of change and a solution

Olli-Pekka Kuusela, Researcher, ETLA Economic Research

15.00 Coffee break

15.30 Decarbonisation and diversity in paper manufacturing – Case SAPPI Kirkniemi

Martti Savelainen, Mill Director, SAPPI Europe, Kirkniemi Mill

16.00 Capturing and utilising CO<sub>2</sub> from the mill chimney – wishful theories or a near-future opportunity?

Juha Lehtonen, Research Professor, VTT

16.30 Closing words and ending the streaming

Coctail event, music and networking

~ 18.00 End of the event at Dipoli

Special programme for students: 9.00-11.00 Excursion to VTT

