

Unlocking higher yield from wood with lower emissions

Moderated by journalist André Noël-Chaker

9.00 Coffee and registration

9.15 Live-stream opens

9.30 PI Autumn meeting – PI:n syyskokous
Chairperson – puheenjohtaja Pia Nilsson
• Review of the activities – Katsaus toimintaan
• Member issues – Jäsenasiat
• Scholarships and awards – Stipendit ja tunnustuspalkinnot

10.20 Coffee break

11.00 Accelerating economic growth with new innovative bioproducts
Antti Asikainen, EVP Research, Natural Resources Institute Finland, Chairperson, Finnish Forest Bioeconomy Science Panel

11.30 Value-added solutions and businesses in forest industry – success stories
Saara Söderberg, Vice President & Head of Bioindustry, AFRY Management Consulting

12.00 Innovating as a winning corporate culture
Petri Hakanen, Senior Vice President, Fibres Finland Operations, UPM

12.30 LUNCH

Afternoon session conducted in collaboration with Emission Free Pulping (EFP) research programme and its partners

14.00 More products from wood – less emissions from pulping: ambitious target-setting for EFP research programme

Per Tomani, Scientific Lead, RISE & Alina Ruonala-Lindgren, Coordinator, VTT

14.20 Key elements for successful and impactful research for transition in pulping
Monica Ek, Professor, Head of Division, KTH

14.40 Industry committed to act: enabling path towards lower emissions and sustainable new bioproducts
Mikael Hannus, SVP, Group Innovation R&D, Stora Enso

15.00 Research and industry dialogue: showcasing EFP research themes solving today's and tomorrow's challenges in pulping

15.55 Closing remarks & acknowledgements

16.00 Closing the seminar and live-stream
Cocktails/mocktails, music and networking

~ 17.30 Ending the onsite event in Dipoli

University students' excursion to Deloitte Finland in the morning at 8.30–10.30.

